From: Christopher Flynn
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 12:40pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I personally feel that microsoft should be forced to open up it's code so that developers can write emulators and libraries to bring microsoft code to other platforms such as mac and UNIX instead of having to create slow emulators that don't emulate things 100%, thus restricting the operating system to a user depending on the programs they want to run.
-Christopher Flynn